Privacy Policy

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Your right to privacy is very important to us. We recognize that providing Mt. Pleasant Area Community Foundation (MPACF) with your personal information is an act of trust. MPACF is committed to honoring the privacy of all those with whom we work, including visitors to our website, online donors, offline donors and subscribers to our electronic newsletters.

ONLINE INFORMATION

Our website (mpacf.org) is owned and operated by MPACF. Our intention is to inform and educate visitors about our work as a grantmaker, community resource and philanthropic partner to local individuals, families and corporations. When you visit MPACF online, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view the public portions of our website.

We may occasionally ask for your feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand your interests and needs. We will also request information through online forms used to register for events, to make recommendations, or to request use of our facilities. The Foundation does not share or make public any personal information gathered through these forms.

If you are a Mt. Pleasant Area Community Foundation grant or scholarship applicant and you use our online application systems, you will provide personal information to authenticate your identity. That information is only used by MPACF and is not distributed or sold to any other party.

By visiting our website, you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

THIRD PARTY SITES

Throughout our website, we offer links to third party sites. Since we do not control those websites, we encourage you to review their privacy policies as well.

DONOR INFORMATION

MPACF will not trade, share or sell a donor's personal information with anyone else or send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations. This is applicable to both online and offline donors.

See Confidentiality Policy and Gift Acknowledgement Policy for more information.

PUBLIC INFORMATION

The following MPACF documents are public information:

- IRS Forms 990 and affiliated schedules for the past three years.
- Exemption letter from the IRS.
- Approved application for exemption with supporting documentation.

Lists of our donors, other than those published in the annual report/magazine, are not available to the public.

COMMUNICATIONS

If at any time you wish to stop receiving MPACF's electronic newsletters, you may unsubscribe from that list as explained in each message. MPACF will not give your personal information to other organizations.

QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS

We welcome comments and questions on this policy. To share feedback or to request information from MPACF, please send an email to info@mpacf.org or write to:
